On Wednesday, September 27, 2017, at approximately 5:22 a.m., an unknown suspect(s) broke a rear window of a residence located on Ava Place in the City of Vaughan. The Ontario Fire Marshall determined the cause of the fire was an incendiary device, set deliberately in the rear of the residence which eventually consumed the whole structure. This also resulted in one of the victims being hospitalized with severe burns.

THE SUSPECT IS DESCRIBED AS:

- No descriptors available.
