Crime Stoppers Needs Your Help Identifying This Suspect

INCIDENT | On Sunday, May 3rd, 2020, the victim's credit card had been used to fraudulently purchase a MacBook Pro valued at $3,500. On Tuesday, May 5th, 2020 at 5:00 pm, the MacBook Pro was delivered by UPS to the victim's residence located on Aries Crescent in the City of Markham. Approximately 20-30 minutes after the laptop was delivered, a small black pickup truck stopped at the front of the residence. The suspect exited the vehicle from the passenger side, walked to the front door, and rang the doorbell numerous times. After no one answered the door, the suspect left only to return a few minutes later, ringing the victim's doorbell repeatedly for 10 minutes before leaving a final time.

SUSPECT #1 DESCRIPTION | Male, light brown skin, 25-30 years old, medium build, short black hair, black full beard.

SUSPECT #2 (DRIVER) DESCRIPTION | Male, white, baseball cap, sunglasses and a surgical mask.
