Crime Stoppers Needs Your Help Identifying This Suspect

INCIDENT | On Sunday July 28th, 2019 at approximately 6:00pm, a theft occurred at the Costco located at 55 New Huntington Rd in the City of Vaughan. The male pictured above entered the store, loaded a flat bed cart with various items and attempted to steal the items by exiting through an emergency exit however it was locked and an alarm sounded. He briefly abandoned his cart and attended the clothing section, where he put on a sweater, socks and running shoes belonging to the store. He then returned to his cart and attempted to exit the store without paying for his merchandise through the main exit but was stopped by employees. The male fled the scene wearing the stolen clothing pictured above in a 2002 Silver Volkswagen (unknown licence plate).

SUBJECT DESCRIPTION | Male, 30-40 years old, medium build, brown hair, brown beard, reading glasses, black baseball cap, black champion sweater, light coloured shorts, black shoes.
